

HEARTIEST GREETINGS

Dear Residents,

RWA extends its heartiest greetings to all the members and their families on the occasion of Lohri on 13th January 2010, Makar Sankranti on 14th, Basant Panchami on 20th and Republic Day on 26th. May all live happily, enjoy good health, share goodwill and might none experience distress.

Lohri is a festival celebrated with much gaiety and music with lighting of bonfires marking the end of winter.

Traditional Song:-

“Sunder mundriye, ho! Tera kaun vichara, ho! Dullah bhatti walla, ho! Dullhe di dheer vyayae, ho! Ser shakkar payee, ho! Kudi da laal pathaka, ho! Kudi da saalu paatta, ho! Salu kaun samete, ho! Chache choorikutti, ho! Zamindara lutti, ho! Zamindaar sudhaye, ho! Bade bhole aaye, ho! Ek bhola reh gaya! Sipahee phar ke lai gaya! Sipahee ne mari eet! Bhaanvey ro te bhaanvey pit! Sanoo de de lohri!”.

WITH WARM LOHRI GREETINGS

Republic Day

Republic Day as usual will be celebrated on Tuesday the 26th January 2010 as per programme given below:

Date	-	Tuesday the 26th January 2010
Time	-	11.00 a.m. onwards.
Venue	-	Community Centre.

Parade by Guards - 11.00 a.m.

Flag hoisting followed by National Anthem - 11.10 a.m.

Deshbhakti sangeet, recital of poems, depicting freedom movement and country's progress.

Cultural programme.

All the residents are welcome to join. Those who wish to take part in the programme may please give their names to Mr. N.K. Banerjee in RWA office latest by 24th evening.

(LIGHT REFRESHMENT HAS BEEN ARRANGED)

Dear friends, various activities for the welfare of our residents are being arranged by RWA Team of exceptionally dedicated and selfless persons who are putting so much of their efforts to run the activities of this Association. Our sincere appreciation and thanks to the Members for their cooperation and guidance in running the affairs of this Association which gives us encouragement to perform still better.

WISHING YOU ALL A VERY HAPPY REPUBLIC DAY.

(K.L. BANSAL)
PRESIDENT

(S.K. SUDAN)
GENERAL SECRETARY