SENIOR CITIZENS

Isolation and neglect in old age is one of the problem areas for the Senior Citizen. RWA with the objective to work for all-round welfare of the senior citizens has been addressing this problem by arranging frequent get-togethers specially tailored to the need and comfort of the senior citizens. Such programmes have been very well received and appreciated.

The club organized its Foundation Day Ceremony on 27.12.2009. President Mr. K.L. Bansal in his address emphasised the need to expand its activities so that more and more persons could join. Mr. S.K. Sudan General Secretary appreciated the efforts of the Club, President Mr. D.K. Ummat and General Secretary Mr. B.R. Sharma to get it registered but there was an urgent need to give wide publicity and to include more welfare activities of interest for the Senior Citizens Mr. Vijay Gupta assured the club that RWA will extend all the necessary Co-operation to enable the club to continue their activities. Mr. Ummat President, club thanked the President and his team for all the support and cooperation.

Lohri was celebrated on 13.01.2010 with enthusiasm and gaiety. A large number of Senior Citizens participated in the programme. All were in a jovial mood. Prior to this a picnic was arranged. The main idea behind all these get-together programmes is to bring all the Senior Citizens at one platform so that they could come out of the atmosphere of neglect and isolation. Such programmes are highly appreciated. We shall appeal to all the Senior Citizens of the sector to come forward and be a part of the Senior Citizen Welfare Club.

For any further enquiry in this regard you may please contact Mr. D.K. Ummat, President, Senior Citizen Club (G-175/41 Ph: 2502161).

Dear Friends, all this has been possible due to the trust and co-operation we have received from you and the selfless services rendered by our team members. RWA team reiterates our resolve to serve the members with all the humility and best of our ability. Your guidance/advice are always welcomed.

Wishing you again a very happy and prosperous New Year
